Out of Babylon

Joseph Kidder

Joseph Kidder was beaten almost to death, thrown into the street unconscious, kicked out of the family forever—all because of his new faith. And so began his long journey from the Babylon of his secular life in Iraq to the amazing love of God and the importance of surrender to His plan. Little did he know what God had in store.

Child of the Crossfire

Alcyon Ruth Fleck

He was brainwashed, trained in guerrilla warfare, captured at his family's massacre, tortured to reveal war secrets, and orphaned—all before he was 10. His name was changed to Salvador, but his inner hatred and bitterness were not as easy to erase. A heart-rending, true story of survival and triumph.

Man-Eaters of Malekula
Roy Brandstater

Throughout the centuries, many have suffered martyrdom in answer to the call of Christ. None have stood more brave and true than the courageous men and women who accepted without question the call to share the good news of Jesus among the cannibalistic peoples of the South Pacific. These young missionaries accepted the challenge of serving a heathen people who lived and died the only way they knew: without God and without hope. This is more than a mission story. It is a documented account of miracles, drama, tragedy and triumph in the rescue of thousands from the darkness of evil to the hope found only in the name of Jesus.

PRAYER & MORE

Make Your Voice Heard in Heaven | NEW!

Barry C. Black

Would you like to learn how to pray so things change? In a time when more and more people are calling on those in power to listen and act, US Senate chaplain Barry Black challenges us—individually and collectively—to call on the One who has the ultimate power, the ruler of all creation. Chaplain Black shows how your prayers can unleash God's power, deepen your intimacy with God, strengthen your desire to live a God-pleasing life, and help you avoid missing God's blessings.

Gold for My Girlfriends | NEW!

Kay Kuzma

Life should not be measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the number of moments that take our breath away. Once you start living by this standard, you'll find yourself really living regardless of the date on your birth certificate. So forget about spending time trying to mask your age with glitter and glamour or pushing yourself to achieve more fame and fortune. These things are just temporary. Instead, focus on creating breathtaking moments that can never be taken away from you, never lost, and never devalued. If you do that, then every age can be "golden."

The King Is in Residence . . . Charles E. Bradford

We live in an age of despair. The American dream is gasping for breath. We find ourselves amid a world in crisis, a world that prefers darkness rather than light. Shouldn't the church have something to say? The King Is in Residence is Bradford's passionate appeal to God's end-time people to recognize the church as the place where Jesus is in residence—the local church determines the vitality of the entire movement. It is the place where Jesus is more palpably experienced. As we live between the two comings—Bethlehem and the clouds of glory—there is much to do. Christ's people must reflect His character. Now is the time to add candidates for residence in the kingdom so that God's house may be filled.

Scripture Mysteries #7:

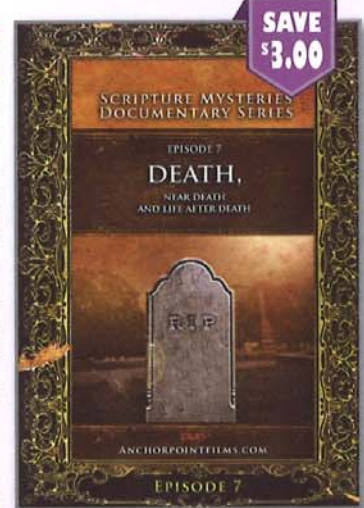

Death | Anchor Point Films

One of the greatest questions of life is death. What happens after we die? People have different opinions ranging from heaven, hell, reincarnation, and others believe that when you die you just turn back to dirt. This documentary DVD looks at history, archaeology and the Bible to get answers to this very important question.

Approximate running time: 57:15 min.

Tell the World DVD

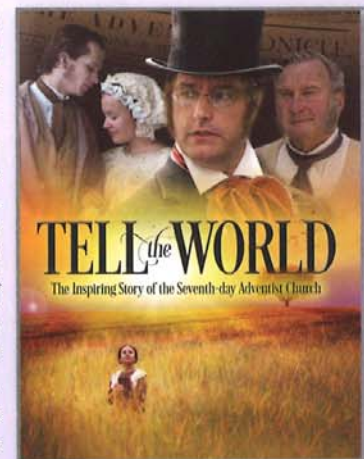

General Conference of SDA

The right equations, but the wrong interpretation. The result was sadness, pain, and discouragement. That's how the story of the Seventh-day Adventist Church begins. Based on true events, Tell the World tells the compelling story of a small group of farmers from the northeast of the United States. They set the foundation of an organization that has been at the forefront of issues such as health, education, communication and Biblical interpretation.
